12. Applicant's Declaration

If you are invited to interview you may be required to answer formal questions as to whether or not you have unspent criminal convictions or summonses pending against you. Spent convictions must be disclosed for certain posts, e.g. Social Workers and Teachers as these are exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Some posts are subject to political restrictions. If any of the above applies to the post you are applying for, further details will be made available to you.

I declare that the information I have provided is true and accurate and in particular that I have not omitted any material facts which may have a bearing on my application. I understand that any contract of employment with St Olave's is offered on the basis of the information I have provided. I understand that a false declaration, which results in my appointment to St Olave's, may render me liable to dismissal. I give explicit consent that the information which I give on this form may be processed in accordance with the St Olave's registration under the Data Protection Act 1998.

I am in possession of the certificates which I claim to hold, and understand that wilful falsification may result in dismissal if I am appointed.

I understand that any offer of employment will be subject to satisfactory medical, Criminal Records Bureau and police checks.

Do you have any family or close connection with any existing employees of St Olave's School including governors?

Yes No

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES MONITORING FORM

The School has a policy on Equal Opportunities, which requires fair and equal treatment to be given to all job applicants. To help check how this policy is working the School seeks to record additional details of all people who apply for jobs.

For this reason the School would be grateful if you would give the information that is requested. This request has the full support of the teaching associations. This information is treated as strictly confidential and will not affect in any way the fair consideration of your application for employment. Your participation is entirely voluntary. Thank you for your assistance.
