

General responsibilities of a teacher

A. Achievement and Standards

- To be accountable for excellent performance of all pupils within your teaching groups.

B. Personal Development and Well-Being

- To have high expectations of students and be committed to ensuring that they can reach their full potential.
- To understand how the development of young people is influenced by a range of developmental, social, religious, ethnic, cultural and linguistic influences.
- To know how to identify potential child abuse or neglect and follow safeguarding procedures.
- To be Form Tutor and to carry out pastoral duties including discipline, attendance, punctuality, reports, assemblies and form rooms, etc., as detailed in the Staff Handbook.

C. Quality of Provision

- To teach well-organised, engaging and motivating lessons with high levels of challenge, questioning and articulation.
- To ensure best practice is sought and integrated into teaching and learning.
- To have a secure knowledge and understanding of your subject and any recent relevant developments.
- To know the assessment requirements and arrangements including public examinations.
- To ensure that data and pupil information are used effectively to inform teaching and learning [including SEN].
- To support students so that they can be reflective and are able to identify how they can improve.
- To encourage high standards of academic and personal achievement, appearance and conduct in all pupils.
- To be committed to the pastoral life of the School, taking account of diversity, promoting equality and inclusion, and managing student behaviour in line with the School's Behaviour Policy.
- To establish a safe and purposeful learning environment.
- To contribute to the wider life of the School and its co-curricular activities.

D. Wider Professional Aspects

- To contribute to departmental development, acting upon the direction and feedback of your line-manager or HoD.
- To have a creative, collaborative and constructive approach to innovation and be prepared to adapt your practice.
- To keep up-to-date with school developments and professional duties, and to carry out a share of supervisory duties.
- To be a role model exemplifying the highest standards of classroom practice and professional conduct.
- To evaluate your performance and be committed to your own professional development.
- To understand the roles of colleagues with specific responsibilities for groups of learners [eg SENCO, Heads of Year]

E. To take responsibility for other areas as may reasonably be requested by the Headmaster.
